First Sunday of Lent

Lent makes little sense without Easter. The temptations of Christ in the desert make little sense without understanding his mission. In both cases, the first is a preparation for the second. Luke's Gospel account highlights the role of the Holy Spirit as Jesus is initiated at the Jordon, led into the desert, and begins his public ministry in Galilee. In each circumstance, Jesus resists the illusion of control and cooperation fully with God's unfolding plan. Although He is Son of God, Jesus never denies His humanity. During this Lent, how will you cooperate with the transforming power of the Holy Spirit working in and through you?

Valentine's Day: the Christian Story

Saint Valentine was a priest at the temple during the reign of Emperor Claudius. Claudius thought soldiers fought better if they did not have a wife and children so he forbid marriage. He then had Valentine jailed for defying him when Valentine ignored the law and continued to perform marriages in secret until he was put to death. In 496 A.D. Pope Gelasius set aside February 14 to honor St. Valentine.

Happy Saint Valentine's Day

Congratulations Newly Baptized

MINISTRY MINUTES

The Personal Side of Lent

On Ash Wednesday many of you received a cross of ashes on your forehead. It was a public statement that you believe in Jesus Christ and are marking the beginning of Lent.

The harder question to answer is what that cross of ashes or your observance of Lenten practices says about where you (and I) need to work to strengthen our relationship with our Lord.

Lent is a time to intensify our personal journey of conversion. It is a time where we listen to God and respond by changing our hearts. None of us is sinless and we need God's grace to touch those areas of our hearts and minds where we have the most weakness, where we need to acknowledge our offenses and face the mystery of our stubborn sinfulness.

It can be very difficult to acknowledge those personal behaviors that are not in concert with how our Lord wants us to love others. Areas like persistent anger or rash judgment or constant complaining or suspicion of others or gossiping or withholding forgiveness or too much self-concern. Areas that we hold deeply and privately in our hearts. These are the hardest things to speak truthfully to ourselves about and where we need God's grace to have a conversion of heart.

Our Church has very few rules to follow during Lent – abstain from meat on Fridays and fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Our Church works hard to set a tone of penitence and reconciliation for this season. Our Church uses the readings at Mass and the color of the vestments and the stopping of joyful prayers like the Gloria to emphasize the somberness of the season.

The gospel for Ash Wednesday tells us the tools we need to best take advantage of Lent. We are to pray more, fast and give alms. We are to do that in a private way that is directed to improving our relationship with our Lord.

Lent is hard work – Happy Lent! ~Deacon Dan

Reflection ~ Robin Black-Rubenstein

The mystery of the Incarnation is accentuated when we think of Jesus being tempted in the desert. Like us, Jesus was human. As a human during those forty days He was hungry, alone with his thoughts, and saddled with the physical difficulties of camping out in the desert over 2000 years ago. There would have been extreme heat during the day, coldness at night, bugs, scorpions and other creatures of the desert. How easy would it have been for Him to make those uncomfortable things go away? After all, He produced gallons and gallons of wine from water and cured illnesses of other people. How can this example of Jesus' temptations be translated into our time and culture during this Lenten season? Let's start by using the answers that Jesus gave to Satan during those forty days.

"It is written, One does not live on bread alone." We have fasting regulations that we follow. Often times we give up some of our favorite foods during Lent. These are the first ways of fasting that we think of during Lent. Here are some others you could add. Fast from checking your cell phone, email, text, Facebook, etc., for a certain amount of time every day. Then dedicate that time to prayer, to calling a friend or family member to see how they are doing, or making sure you look at the grocery store clerk or restaurant server and others you encounter directly, acknowledge them personally, and smile.

It is written: You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve." Of course we will want to make sure we are getting to Mass every week and maybe add some daily Masses and Friday Stations of the Cross. Are there other ways we serve God? Again prayer is one of those ways. Maybe spend some time with Jesus in prayer in the Eucharistic Chapel? Maybe prayer with others, visiting the sick, or just sit and be with God. We also serve God by helping and serving others. There are a multitude of ways to do that. After prayer spend some time writing down how your gifts can be used in the service of others.

"It also says, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." As humans we are made in the image and likeness of God. We are "Children of God". But we are not God. How do we treat others? I know sometimes when I am anxious or stressed I forget to see the presence of God in others. Sometimes I forget to trust that God loves me and feel the need to fix everything myself. Lent is a good time to trust in God's love and to remember that our goodness and love come from God. We have the answers to our test. God gave them to us in Jesus and everything that He taught the disciples and teaches us. Have a happy Lent!

Stewardship

Literally speaking, "Deuteronomy," as in the Book of Deuteronomy, means "Second Law." This Old Testament Book from which our First Reading is drawn actually consists of three sermons delivered to the Israelites by Moses. Interestingly, in German, this book is called just Mose, drawing the name from the opening line of the Book which states, quite simply, "These are the words of Moses."

In today's reading Moses speaks not just to the Israelites, but to us as well, as is always the case with Holy Scripture. Moses makes reference to giving of one's first fruits. Specifically he says, "Therefore, I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given me, and having set them before the Lord, your God, you shall bow down in his presence."

Giving of first fruits is a way to acknowledge and honor God because it provides the Lord with His portion first, before any is used for one's self. That, of course, is an important aspect of stewardship, as challenging as that may be. Moses points out that it is more than giving first fruits, however. He recognizes that all comes from God, and we are called to return this first portion in thanksgiving for God's grace and love and blessings.

Moses would also remind us that giving must come from the heart, with a true attitude of gratitude. It is part of the way we worship the Lord by being stewards of His gifts.

St. Boniface appreciates your gifts to the church. We would like to suggest some ways to make your gift giving easier:

- Easy and convenient! EFT is an automatic withdrawal from your checking account on a monthly basis. There are no service fee charges! All we need is a copy of your cancelled check and your authorization form for an amount to be given automatically. Once a month giving is as easy as paying your light bill!
- Traditional weekly contribution envelopes provided by the church. This allows us to give you credit for the gifts you give to the church. We have no way to credit anonymous gifts of cash.
- Are you visiting or have not yet registered? We will send you a thank you letter for your contribution (if you give by check) that can be used for tax purposes. Cash donations are more difficult unless a name and address are included with the gift.

All gifts to St. Boniface are tax deductible!

PEACE TO ALL WHO LOVE THE LORD IN SIMPLICITY OF HEART

Thank you for your support!

Thank you for your support of St. Boniface Catholic Church. Make your contributions to the church even easier by taking advantage of our online giving option. Setting up your account is easy; you can set it up online through our website www.st-boniface.com, or complete a form and turn it in to the Parish Office to Robin Hake's attention. Please help close our year-to-date deficit gap!
